

Math PhD UAM

Postgraduate program in mathematics at
Universidad Autónoma de Madrid

The Department of Mathematics of the U.A.M. offers:

5 Grants for the Master in Pure and Applied Mathematics.

Duration: 12 months (October 2013- September 2014). Funding: 1000 € per month plus tuition fees. Candidates: Graduates in Mathematics, or students in the last year of their undergraduate studies in Mathematics.

Ten-months grants for initiating PhD studies in Mathematics.

Duration: 10 months (October 2013-July 2014). Funding: 1000 € per month plus tuition fees. Eligibility: Masters degree in Mathematics. Graduate students currently enrolled in the Master's studies are also encouraged to apply.

2 Four-year grants for PhD students in Mathematics.

Duration: 48 months, starting in October 2013. Funding: The first two years 1142 € per month. The second two years 14 payments of 1173 €, including tuition fees in both periods. Eligibility: Masters degree in Mathematics. Graduate students currently enrolled in the Masters studies are also encouraged to apply.

Financial support for visitors.

Duration: 1 to 3 months during the year 2013. Funding: 4000 € monthly. Candidates: Mathematicians from institutions based outside the region of Madrid. Preference will be given to those coming from abroad.

Application forms and further details at www.uam.es/matematicas

